Moores Rowland Partners joins the Russell Bedford network

Moores Rowland Partners is delighted to announce that on December 16th, 2020, they joined Russell Bedford, a global network with 850 Partners, 7500 Staff and 350 Offices in 100 Countries all over the world.

By joining Russell Bedford, Moores Rowland Partners will be able to provide to its clients an even more focussed service in all internationalisation processes, as well as to share knowledge and expertise with other Partners of the global network to be offered to its clients.

The CEO of Russell Bedford, when speaking about the announcement declared that “I am delighted to welcome Moores Rowland Partners to our Italian network. The firm’s niche offerings will unquestionably bring value to global clients seeking support in Italy. Moores Rowland Partners’ focus on the international market makes the firm an ideal candidate for joining our global network and I look forward to meeting the team at future events”.
